In Part A, you will hear several questions or statements. Choose the best response or reply.

- A 1. This chair doesn't look very sturdy; I'd prefer not to risk sitting on it. (Jul.&Aug. Unit 10)
(A) You're right. It looks like it could break easily.
(B) Yes, the chair seems expensive, so it should be durable.
(C) That's correct. I think we should paint it a new color.
(D) Indeed, the chair looks stylish, so it's worth trying out.
- B 2. I just finished reading that new novel. The narrative really caught my attention. (Jul.&Aug. Unit 16)
(A) The plot of the novel was predictable and dull.
(B) The way the story was described was engaging.
(C) The novel had too many complicated characters to follow.
(D) The ending of the novel was disappointing and confusing.
- A 3. We need to minimize the number of people at the meeting. (Sep. Unit 7)
(A) OK, I'll only invite a limited group to it.
(B) Actually, I don't think we need to provide food at all.
(C) Yes, we'll have to rearrange the date and time to increase participants.
(D) Right, we should encourage more people to join the meeting for better ideas.
- B 4. Did you just use a disposable razor to shave your beard? (Sep. Unit 2)
(A) You're right. It was very sharp.
(B) Yeah, I threw it away when I was done.
(C) I thought you preferred electric razors for shaving.
(D) Are you planning to let your beard grow longer?

Part B

In Part B, you will hear several conversations between a man and a woman, and then a question following each conversation. Choose the best answer for each question.

- A 5. M: This painting is beautiful.
W: I really like it as well.
M: Do you know anything else about it?
W: I believe the museum got it on loan.
Q: What does the woman say about the painting? (Sep. Unit 5)
(A) It was borrowed from another museum.
(B) It's the museum's oldest painting.
(C) The museum purchased the artwork.

(D) The museum received the artwork as a gift.

C 6. M: What are you cooking tonight? It smells great!

W: I wanted to make a new Indian dish, but I couldn't get some of the more exotic ingredients.

M: Tell me next time and I'll go to the Indian market for you.

W: There's an Indian market here in Taichung?!

Q: What problem did the woman have? (Jul.&Aug. Unit 11)

(A) She is missing a few local ingredients.

(B) She was too busy to go grocery shopping.

(C)She was not able to find typical Indian ingredients.

(D) She couldn't find the recipe for the dish she wanted to make.

Part C

In Part C, you will hear one passage. Choose the best answer for each question.

Read questions 7 and 8 before listening to this passage.

I've received lots of positive feedback about last week's session. Since everyone loved reading And Then There Were None, here are some books with similar vibes. First up is The Westing Game by Ellen Raskin. It's about a group of people invited to a mysterious mansion where they get caught up in a puzzle filled with dangers and surprises. Another great option is The Inheritance Games by Jennifer Lynn Barnes. It has lots of plot twists and unanswered questions that keep readers guessing until the shocking end. Finally, I recommend One of Us is Lying by Karen M. McManus. It's about a tight group of friends whose loyalty gets tested when they wind up as suspects in a high-stakes investigation. (Jul.&Aug. Unit 15)

B 7. Where would you hear this talk?

(A) At a science fair.

(B)At a book club meeting.

(C) At a film adaptation panel.

(D) At a writing training conference.

D 8. What common theme connects the books recommended in the article?

(A)They all involve magic and fantasy.

(B) They are all set in historical periods.

(C) They focus on character development and personal growth.

(D)They all feature thrilling mysteries and an element of suspense.

Part D

In Part D, you will hear a long talk. Take notes on the talk using the form below. Then, you will hear two questions. Use your notes to answer each question. (Your notes in the form won't count towards your score.)

Questions 9-10 (Read the form and options before listening to the talk)

Are you the king or queen of the streets? Can you dance like a pro? Show your skills at the B-Battle Breakdown Championship! As well as individual battles, we have crew battles. Crews of three to five people will face off and compete. Both kinds of battle will be judged on creativity, technique, and showmanship.

If you want to see the city's best B-boys and B-girls, tickets are 20 dollars in advance and 25 dollars at the door. For 40 dollars, you can purchase a VIP ticket that includes premium seats and a chance to meet with the competitors. If you think you have what it takes to win, register to compete! The entry fee is 50 dollars per participant, and the registration deadline is July 30. Sign up online at our website.

You won't just be dancing for pride, though! We have some great prizes available. The winner of the crew battle gets 3,000 dollars to split between them. The one-on-one winner will take home 1,500 dollars. What's more, we have two special awards. The dancer judged to have the most original moves will win 2,000 dollars, while the prize for being the crowd favorite is also 2,000 dollars. What are you waiting for? (Jul.&Aug. Unit 16)
