Publisher 出版者: Grosset & Dunlap

ISBN 國際標準書號: 978-0-448-44987-6

Abstract 重點摘要:

Picasso was a born artist. He made all kinds of arts, like paintings, sculptures and collages, etc. Besides, his creation styles and what he wanted to express were various, so the diversity of his works made him the richest artist in history.

Quotations 佳句抄錄:

Gertrude was a poet. She had written the famous line, "Rose is a rose is a rose." (P.30) Pablo said, "I paint objects as I think them, not as I see them." Together, they were inventing a new style — cubism! (P.41) Then Pablo started painting things like centaurs and fauns.

Picasso stands out from other artists because he is true to himself instead of following others. Originally, I don't know how to appreciate his painting, and I don't

Answer the following questions about this book: him, either. After reading

1. Did you like or dislike the book? Why? this book, I know ^{why} people

Yes, because this one is easier to read. admire him for

2. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not? he amazed us

Yes, because the illustrations are better than the first book I read. in his unique way.

3. (If the book is fiction) Who was your favorite character? Why?

(If the book is non-fiction) What new information did you learn?

Picasso's name was very long. And Picasso married 7

women in his life. ✓

4. If you could change anything about the book, what would you change? Why?

Maybe I'll make it more colorful, so I won't need to go to

Picasso's exhibition again. ✓

5. What connection from this book can you make to your personal life? Why did you choose it?

We have to try new things. Being brave to break the tradition is also important.

My Discovery 心得: (80~100 words)

Actually, I didn't like Picasso at first. I thought his paintings were similar to graffiti, or even worse. I was confused why Picasso could be famous since his paintings were so creepy. Not until I read the book ~~do~~ I understand why Picasso was a great artist. His creation and efforts led to the cubism and surrealist. He is the turning point of modern art. Most important of all, he freed art creation.

Not only paintings that look real can be art now.
