"Someone very rich must have tossed in this quarter," Jamie whispered. "Someone very poor," Claudia corrected. "Rich people have only penny wishes." (page 84)

Notes 筆記欄

Answer the following questions about this book:

1. Did you like or dislike the book? Why?

Yes, I did. The main characters' dialogues are humor and wise.

2. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not?

Yes, I would. It has the thoughts different from us teenagers who live comfortably in the modern cities.

3. (If the book is fiction) Who was your favorite character? Why?

(If the book is non-fiction) What new information did you learn?

Claudia. She's different from general teenagers. She's mature because of the background, but I don't.

4. If you could change anything about the book, what would you change? Why?

In fact, I thought the book is great. Any change,

I thought it is not allowed.

5. Does the book have any connection with your personal life? Explain briefly.

The book told me the importance of taking care of myself outside. After all, I have to live by myself like the characters.

My Discovery 心得：(80~100 words)

Different from the lead characters in the fiction, most of us children live a comfortable life in modern city. The story is full of humor, wit, and surprise. It also told us some special messages. <sup>Can the</sup> children growing up in modern city take care of themselves outside their house? Every one needs to learn the skills to take care of himself (herself). The courage and the house chores let the characters be not afraid of living outside.
