After reading the novel, I feel sad for Magellan.
6. A hero like him, Magellan endured a lot of hardship, bore what ordinary people can't bear

Answer the following questions about this book:

1. Did you like or dislike the book? Why?

Yes, it told me detailed about the ^{life of} earliest sailors ^{only to die a ridiculous death}

2. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not?

Yes, it is a good biography of the first world sailor.
3. (If the book is fiction) Who was your favorite character? Why?

(If the book is non-fiction) What new information did you learn?

I learned the spirit of persistence of Ferdinand Magellan.

4. If you could change anything about the book, what would you change? Why?

I'd change Ferdinand's mind of fighting with the natives, then he could survive from the voyage.

5. What connection from this book can you make to your personal life? Why did you choose it?

A heart of never give up, it is the most important thing of all.

My Discovery 心得: (80~100 words)

From the Ferdinand's story, I've learned that one's appearance. But the most important thing, but the experience, ~~hard word is~~ (Although) Ferdinand looks ugly and fierce and was ~~refused~~ ^{rejected} by the Portugal's King, ~~but~~ his experience was accepted by Spanish.

I appreciate Ferdinand's ~~his~~ efforts. Though he sailed in an unknown area, he ~~wasn't~~ ^{didn't} fear, ^{with hope in his mind}, he conquered the sea. Keeping a hopefulness mentality, No matter what happened strangely on the sea, he struggled, learned to survive. This is what I should learn now.
